THE WEAK FACE OF A WEAK EUROPE

Paris, Washington DC, 17.07.2020, 23:08 Time

USPA NEWS - « On Friday, for the first time since the onset of the COVID-19 crisis, we will be able to meet again here in Brussels. The COVID-19 pandemic has claimed many lives across Europe and dealt a serious blow to our economies and societies. It continues to impact our lives. All our efforts must focus on building a sustainable recovery. To that end, our meeting this week will be dedicated to the Multiannual Financial Framework and the Recovery Plan. Since our last summit in June, we have worked intensively with all of you and taken due note of your concerns. On that basis I have put forward a proposal to address the key difficulties and to build bridges between the different positions. Finding agreement will require hard work and political will on the part of all. The European Recovery Plan was announced jointly by President Macron and Chancellor Angela Merkel on May 5th (See article PDT MACRON & CHANCELLOR MERKEL PROPOSE BN€ 500 TO STOP EU RECESSION OVER COVID-19 JOINT BOND SYMBOLIC OF UNITY&SOLIDARITY <https://www.uspa24.com/bericht-17011/pdt-macron-und-chancellor-merkel-propose-bn-500-to-stop-eu-recession-over-covid.html>)
