USPA NEWS - Amid escalating tensions arising out of Russia's attack on Ukraine which has led to unknown number of human losses, so far and certainly hundred thousands of civilians, to flee to border countries such as Poland and Romania (members of the European Union), under panic and the fear of being killed by the bombing, U.S President Biden is monitoring both the coordination with the Allies. He coordinates both permanent exchanges with NATO and European allies, and relevant partner countries, both from the point of view of the common defense strategy and sanctions against Russia and of humanitarian and financial aid to bring to Ukraine. NATO Heads of State and Government held an extraordinary virtual Summit, via secure teleconference on Friday 25 February 2022, to discuss the security situation in and around Ukraine. U.S President Biden, attended the NATO's virtual meeting of today, and issued a statement, just right away after and called Ukraine's President Zelenskyy on the row. At the invitation of the Secretary General, we were joined today by Finland, Sweden and the European Union. « We have met today to discuss the gravest threat to Euro-Atlantic security in decades» S.G Stoltenberg

Amid escalating tensions arising out of Russia's attack on Ukraine which has led to unknown number of human losses, so far and certainly hundred thousands of civilians, to flee to border countries such as Poland and Romania (members of the European Union), under panic and the fear of being killed by the bombing, U.S President Biden is monitoring both the coordination with the Allies. He coordinates both permanent exchanges with NATO and European allies, and relevant partner countries, both from the point of view of the common defense strategy and sanctions against Russia and of humanitarian and financial aid to bring to Ukraine.

NATO Heads of State and Government held an extraordinary virtual Summit, via secure teleconference on Friday 25 February 2022, to discuss the security situation in and around Ukraine. U.S President Biden, attended the NATO's virtual meeting of today, and issued a statement, just right away after and called Ukraine's President Zelenskyy on the row. At the invitation of the Secretary General, we were joined today by Finland, Sweden and the European Union. « We have met today to discuss the gravest threat to Euro-Atlantic security in decades. » Secretary General of NATO. The Chief of the White House, Joe Biden declared in a statement issue today, « Today I met with fellow leaders from our NATO Allies to discuss our shared commitment to collective defense and Transatlantic security. As President Putin threatens the very foundations of international peace and security, NATO is once again demonstrating that it stands for freedom and democracy. As I said yesterday, the United States will defend every inch of NATO territory. Our commitment to Article 5 is ironclad. I have ordered the deployment of additional forces to augment our capabilities in Europe to support our NATO Allies. And I strongly welcome the decision to activate NATO's defensive plans and elements of the NATO Response Force to strengthen our collective posture, as well as the commitments by our Allies to deploy additional land and air forces to the eastern flank and maritime forces from the High North to the Mediterranean. » Source: White House

« WE ARE JOINED BY OUR CLOSE PARTNERS SWEDEN, FINLAND & THE EU, PRES. PUTIN HAS FAILED IN HIS GOAL OF DIVIDING THE WEST » PRES BIDEN SAID

U.S President Biden, reaffirmed the strength of NATO, thanks to its unity, standing by Ukraine, which is facing the recent attacks of Russia since President Putin announced the independence of Donbass, prior to a deployment of military forces, over there « We were joined today by our close partners Sweden, Finland, and the European Union. President Putin has failed in his goal of dividing the West. NATO is as united and resolute as it's ever been, and NATO will maintain its Open Door to those European states who share our values and who one day may seek to join our Alliance. As we navigate this crisis, we pledged to work even more closely together in our defense of freedom and the democratic values that imbue our Alliance with purpose and power. »-----

President Biden, called his Ukrainian counterpart right away, after the NATO's meeting, to ensure him his support, paying a tribute to the bravery of the Ukrainian people « Immediately after the NATO Summit, I spoke with President Zelenskyy of Ukraine. I commended the brave actions of the Ukrainian people who were fighting to defend their country. I also conveyed ongoing economic, humanitarian, and security support being provided by the United States as well as our continued efforts to rally other countries to provide similar assistance. », he concluded. Source: White House
